The Stafford family celebrates its 30 years of success at Manoir Hovey

North Hatley, March 3, 2009. This year we are celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Stafford family's ownership of Manoir Hovey. This countryside inn in Quebec, Earsten Townships, was the first to receive the 5-star distinction from Hébergement Québec 12 years ago. When the family acquired the inn, they invested time, money and effort to make Hovey one of the best places to stay in the world. They succeeded in offering a combination of luxurious lodging and fine dining on the shores of Lake Massawippi.

The executive chef Roland Ménard has just created a special menu in collaboration with Kathy, Stephen & Jason Stafford to celebrate this anniversary. You can enjoy this menu until April 30th 2009 for only 50$. The four course table d'hôte gathers some of the most popular dishes of the past 30 years. The appetizer is a honeyed flavoured mushroom salad with goat cheese. A choice of two main courses is available; a pork filet, gnocchi and glazed vegetables or the salmon «à l'étouffé», leek and ginger. The dessert is a warm chocolate biscuit, pecan, caramel and double cream.

In the 50's, Mr. Robert Brown purchased Manoir Hovey and transformed the private estate. Thanks to his vision and appreciation of the Manor's exceptional charm, when he transformed the Manoir into an inn, he did so in a way that preserved this charm ingeniously. According to Mr. Stafford, "we have continuously undertaken renovations every year and our objective has always been to, not just maintain, but to raise the standards of this historic property".

Manoir Hovey has received many distinguished accolades through the years. Among these distinctions, Guide Debeur has awarded its highest rank of 4-star for 12 consecutive years and the CAA/AAA 4-diamond since the early 90's. Manoir Hovey was also placed at the top of the prestigious listings such as the Condé Nast Traveler, Wine Access magazine and Wine Spectator.
